Annual Training Conference

“MANAGING JUVENILE SERVICES”

Made possible through a technical assistance grant from OJJDP

A must for juvenile officers, SROs, detectives, supervisors, juvenile probation officers, child welfare workers, youth center and shelter counselors, and any other professional concerned with the delivery of services to our at risk youth population. The course addresses leadership and organizational competency in the planning and delivery of youth services. The training will demonstrate and promote exchange of information to encourage interagency networking and collaboration to maximize resources within community. Effective decisions made to enhance prevention, intervention and enforcement efforts will be discussed. Length of program is 4-1/2 days.
